Service Hours Information – Service Hours are 15% of Religion grade each trimester

All students are required to complete 9 service hours each Trimester.

1. Service hour form must be completely filled out including a picture of the student performing the service and must be signed by parent or facilitator at location where the hours were completed.
2. Service hours cannot all be completed in one place or in one day.
3. Hours need to be separated into 3 areas of service. A maximum of 3 hours will be given for any area, even if more hours were served. This is to insure that students spread around their hours to different areas of need in the community.
4. Any walks in the community that benefit charity organizations are eligible for hours.
5. The following is a list of services not eligible for service hours.
 1. Babysitting – Even if it is for free
 2. Working for a parent or family business, unless it is for a charitable organization or to raise money for one.
 3. Cleaning out closet for donation to charity can get 1 hour for only 1 trimester.
 4. Baking cookies and giving to fire department, police department, 1 hour for only 1 trimester.

Altar servers receive 3 hours each trimester if they have altar served 3 times during the trimester. This will be checked with the church, the altar server form with the student's name is not proof that they actually served.

Choir receives 3 hours each trimester.

National Jr. Honor Society receives 3 hours only if they tutor during lunch each trimester.

Student council receives hours for participating in after school events with set up, tearing down or working a school event, not for being on student council.

Students may get hours for taking a CPR/first aid or babysitting training class.

If you are uncertain if hours are eligible please e-mail Mrs. Tatum at ktatum@sacredheartpalmdesert.com.
